The Semi-Annual Boys' Clothing Clearance

Begins This Morning at 8:30

THE BEST ASSORTMENT OF GARMENTS WE HAVE EVER OFFERED IN ANY SIMILAR EVENT

Many boys are fortunate enough at Christmas to have it bring them gifts of money, and yet be in real need of Suits or Overcoats. Others have no immediate needs, but take advantage of reductions to anticipate their wants at savings. To both classes, and to all boys who want the best clothes-AND ECO-NOMICALLY—this Clearance Sale appeals very strongly. The large assortment and splendid garments leads us to believe that the response of the past will be greatly surpassed this year.

It must be understood that though the displays are large, early selection has manifold advantages in choice of styles, patterns, and values - SELECT NOW.

The church will observe the close of the year on Thursday evening between 10 and 13 o'clock. After a program of music there will follow a consideration, led by the pastor, of "retrospect, circum-spect and prospect."

Baptist churches and Sunday schools are taking a large interest in the proposed orphanage, which, it is hoped, may be in operation by February 1. Something more than $5,500 was subscribed within a very short time after the need within a very short time after the need of the institution was presented at the meeting in November of the Columbia Baptist Association. This fund has been steadily growing since that time. Through the generosity of John B. Lord, of the Brookland Baptist Church, a large dwelling and grounds have been presented to the association for use as an orphanage. The furnishing or unkneed of the twenty. The furnishing or upkeep of the twenty-five rooms of the home is being pledged by the various churches and Sunday schools, and it is believed that the executive committee of the association can an-nounce soon that the equipment is com-plete and can set the date for the opening of the institution,
